A carpet is a textile floor covering typically consisting of an upper layer of pile attached to a backing. The pile was traditionally made from wool, but, since the 20th century, synthetic fibers such as polypropylene, nylon or polyester are often used, as these fibers are less expensive than wool. Carpet factories in Beijing and Tianjin produced woolen rugs with traditional Chinese designs, such as dragon, phoenix, peony flower, and Chinese symbols. In Zhejiang, Jiangsu, and Shanghai they produced spun silk rugs with 120 lines. Chinese Carpets and Rugs and millions of other books are available for Amazon Kindle.
