DESCRIPTION OF THE BOOK RE:LOCATION

Whether you are thinking of abandoning the rat race for the quiet of the countryside or moving from one town to another, RE:LOCATION will provide essential advice and tips on every aspect of moving to a new area, from finding the best location and house for your budget to researching school and leisure facilities and liaising with local estate agents. Including a themed tour of areas surrounding the UK's main cities, from seaside and holiday areas to market towns and rural retreats, this book takes the legwork out of finding an area to buy and includes relative price guides, case studies from real relocators and advice on all aspects of the selling, buying and moving process. This brilliantly designed book lets you see the facts at an at-a-glance format, with photographs and illustrations that add to the practical advice. With input from presenters and house experts Phil Spencer and Kirstie Allsop, this is the THE place to find invaluable tips and insider information on making that big move.
