Signs exist for many basic colors, but not for more specific or detailed colors. Each sign is deeply and directly connected to its own planet, element, archetype, season, and more, all playing a role in the traits and emotions expressed by that sign. Understanding the nature of your own zodiac sign can help you gain personal perspective, growth, and a greater connection to the universe and the earth around you. The psychology of color as it relates to persuasion is one of the most interesting — and most controversial — aspects of marketing. At Help Scout we believe the problem has always been depth of analysis. Color theory is a topic of complexity and nuance, but splashy infographics rarely go beyond.

Did you ever wonder why you see the colors you do or if other animals see the same colors that you see? We see light that bounces off of things around us. When the light enters our eyes, special cells tell our brains about the light. For example, if we decided to choose green as our main color, we'd look across the color wheel for its complementary color, red. Then, look to the two colors directly beside it. Now, we have green, red-orange, and red-purple for a perfect split complementary color scheme. One Response to "Color". Kristine V September 12th, 2012 . Can I use the 'color' sign to signify coloring with crayons etc.? ADMIN - Hi Kristine, Instead of using the same sign for two different concepts, we suggest you reserve color to only refer to red, green, etc. User Comments.
